5. ACTION ITEMS

To approve the Assurance of Special Education Services Resolution

Susie Clark briefly discussed the information in the Assurance of Special Education Services Resolution that was sent out earlier in the week for the council to review.

Deborah Morehead asked if the additional assurances on number 11 of the last page would require homes to be equipped with special needs alterations.

Susie Clark answered the question: The home is not an official school facility, therefore not having the same requirements. This SELPA resolution has the exact same guidelines as what we have now, we are already required to do everything in this assurance. The guidelines in the assurance are not new; this is already how SMCS operates. With this assurance the SELPA funding goes directly to SMCS rather than through the district and then to SMCS.

Assurance of Special Education Services Resolution approved by:

Juliet Pailes, Elizabeth Eagen, Kim Lovold, Catherine Hanna, Melissa Hoyal, Terri Lussenheide, Jackie Mears, Deborah Morehead, Kitty Handberry, Renee Canham, Maricel O'Sullivan
